The Carmel Apple Crepe is a Must

Sati Coffee has a great atmosphere, excellent coffee, and the crepes are simply the best! We have started a new tradition of meeting my parents and sister (oh wait she usually sleeps in) there on a Sunday morning to catch up for an hour and go on our way. The wait staff is always friendly and willing to bring your drink or crepe to your table with a smile. They go the extra mile for customer service...when I, oops my Dad pays $3.00 for a latte I want a little kissing up *smile*. Sati .....LOVE IT

I am a hard core namebrand coffee shop junky. I will go without before I step into an unknown shop. Matt who is a charming young man working there insisted I compare. Needless to say I am a Sati regular. I buy the Moko Sadimo to make at home. I make much stronger then they do and it is by far the best coffee I have ever had!
